Arts Task Force report: Michaela Turbitt and Paul Duhamel

-Mtg mthly to ask what arts mean to all, what are strengths/weaknesses so far in programs with an aim to improve for the future

Take Your Seat: Michaela Turbitt

-12 Take Your Seat plaques to be installed

New Business: Michaela Turbitt

-Fundraising

-Stop and Shop is offering a reusable bag fundraiser-they will sell- boosters will receive $1 of profits

-Subcommittees needed to determine best way to advertise and to delegate for other projects such as Take Your Seat, Scholarship Committee, Fundraiser Committee

-Gail no longer chairperson of Scholarship Comm.-Michaela to email former members for help

-Suggestions, flyers placed at businesses. Michelle offered to place them around town, Tracey suggested Greenville Library. This would be in addition to social media advertising.

-Cookie trays were approved as a fundraiser $10 small tray, $15 large tray

-Ashleigh suggested baking and assembling could be offered to Tri-M members as service project

-Katherine to double-check supplies such as gloves etc. to make sure we are also Covid-safe

-12/9 is concert so new date determined to be 12/8 for cookie tray assembly and meeting

-Jaswell's Farm donated for concert would like to continue donation relationship for future events ie holiday time or teacher appreciation

-Ashleigh suggested Valentine's Day beneficial since slow time of yr, boosters receive part of profits

-Auditorium gala on hold. Dr. Paolucci applied for Champlin Grant- will hear results end of November

-If grant approved, gala can be held to support

-Sound system- should we look into quotes for portable or permanent? Mr. Chartier to look into quotes. Katherine believes it may be better to replace existing Fender system with functioning new portable- no worry about damage from other people using

-Questions raised- who is using system and who will benefit? Paul suggested if portable-only $ comes from Boosters, if permanent structure $ comes from Take Your Seat fund since all who donated would have benefit of use

-Unanimous decision to put together quotes on portable systems. Official vote planned for next mtg

Meeting adjourned 8:00pm
